VOL. III. NO. 22.

CHICAGO, TUESDAY, JANUARY 26, 1897.

BILL MCGUIGAN IN TROUBLE.

Col. Bill McGuigan is in trouble. Recently, in the Spirit of the Times, "a prominent turfman, who has acted as presiding judge on many of the western tracks" was quoted by a Nashville writer for a general condemnation of the western turf methods which allowed Riley Grannan and W. M. Wallace the privileges of western tracks and permitted Willie Martin to ride horses in the west. McGuigan wrote a long but none too keen answer to the "prominent turfman's" quoted opinion. No names were mentioned. John J. Carter of Nashville, presiding judge at Latonia, turns out to be the quoted "prominent turfman." He has filed a complaint against McGuigan with Secretary Hopper of the Western Turf Congress and declares that either he or McGuigan must be ruled off and that if turf law fails to vindicate him he will go to the courts. Mr. Carter opines that McGuigan shot at him on account of a ruling which barred McGuigan's boy, Morrison, from riding because of, to quote Mr. Carter, "I thought he was not trying to win." The sieve of care applied to McGuigan's card yields only the following damaging insinuations, if it can be proven that the card was pointed at Mr. Carter:

"In one particular I am glad to say I am fully in accord with the 'prominent turfman' who has acted as presiding judge on many of the Western tracks." He suggests "to divorce the judge's stand from the betting ring." Why does he only suggest? Why not act instead of preach? Take my advice, Mr. Prominent Turfman who has acted as presiding judge on many of the Western tracks, and leave the betting ring alone; then, perhaps, you might be capable of judging fairly and honestly. But no, nature has not endowed you with the love of honest sport. You talk of a 'purified turf.' It is well. Let them begin in the judge's stand. If it is purified Mr. Prominent Turfman will never more act as presiding judge on any Western track."

Mr. Carter's case may be better than superficial statement puts it on parade. If he can prove that he is McGuigan's target—a hard matter on the face of printed statement—the way is paved for a libel suit. The Turf Congress is not likely to take drastic action over the dispute. McGuigan's none too good and his card carried little or no weight. The statement and criticism of the "prominent turfman" were a bit out of line too, considering the display of reason for action by the Jockey Club against Grannan, Wallace and Martin. The Grannan lawsuit gave no supportive color to the criticism. It seems as if Mr. Carter has treated a featherweight matter in too ponderous and serious a manner. Discipline though is excellent. The Western turf needs a whole lot of it. Anarchy of statement is all too common among its people. Elastic though it be, Western turf law is strong enough to nail the scandal monger if the legal doctors will stick to their principles of duty. Such an administration of rules is mere order. A lot of health to the Western turf may come out of Judge Carter's complaint. It is to be hoped that he will push it along the avenues of healthy prospects.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Mr. Bruce and the Jockey Club did not agree on the sale of the Stud Book as was declared and the pedigree registration war is still on, with the tide flowing away from the Bruce source.

The Brooklyn Jockey Club has secured a star special event in a four cornered match of $500 a side, half forfeit, $2,500 added, at 1 1/4 miles, for Requitat, Hastings, Handspring, and Ben Brush.

W. O. B. Macdonough's bay yearling colt, by St. Carlo—Countess Langdon, by King Craft, is said to have shown one of the best trials in California. He is small, but is credited with a quarter in 24 1/2 seconds, carrying 124 pounds.

Pat Dunne is quoted by the San Francisco papers as intending to sell all the horses he is now racing in California before he comes East.

Ed Corrigan's Riley—Modesty colt in California is a fast, clever and speedy youngster, likely to distinguish himself in the two-year-old stakes of 1897.

Byron McClelland's best "newspapered" youngster is the Order—Miss Saxon colt, Sidar, a smart colt, born January 1, 1895. But "there are others" in the stable.

W. Darden, who owns a half interest in Algol, is said to have an equine wonder in Trombone, by Albert—Tambourine. He has shown three furlongs in 36 over the Memphis track.

The following stakes are definitely dated at Ingleside: The Tarpey Stakes, 1 1/4 miles, selling, January 30; Hobart Stakes, 1-16 miles, handicap, February 6; Ingleside Stakes, 4 miles, handicap, February 22.

Clem Creveling and Dick Dwyer, as patentees of the starting band, have sued the Southern Racing Association, operating the Maryland tracks for injunction, infringement of patent rights and damages because of the use of their starting device without permission or payment.

John Rodegap has twenty horses in training at the Kentucky Association course. They are all doing nicely. Among the two-year-olds is a full sister to Bowling Green that has shown a quarter in :24 1/2 with weight up, beating out by a head the Deceiver colt, out of a full sister to the dam of Flora Thornton. Treopia, Garland Bar, Goshen and Blitzen's Sister are all looking well. Rodegap will begin the season at Newport.

The Jockey Club gives notice, through the Racing Calendar, of a new section to rule 162, which will stop the use of stimulants and reads as follows: "Any person who shall be proved to have stimulated the speed of a horse by the use of drugs, whether administered by hypodermic or any other method, or who shall have used appliances, electrical or mechanical, other than the whip and spur. Every person so offending shall be ruled off."

THE AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL

The American Sporting Manual will be ready for delivery Saturday at 35 cents in paper and 50 cents in leather covers. It is a handsome book of pocket size. You can bet on its figures. It has all records up to January 1, 1897, and specially covers those of the running turf. There are two handicap tables within its covers. The figures on two sets of entries are given as illustrations to the tables. The book contains all track records, track speed and comparative speed applying to the handicap tables, and all the sporting records of 1896. Among its contents is a full list of the fights of 1896.

The American Sporting Manual

A YEARBOOK AND COMPENDIUM OF RECORDS

The Manual will be: A Book for the Pocket.

A Book of Authority.

A Comely Book. A Cheap Book.

It will contain all general sporting records in use. All American Turf Records. All American Track Records. A twenty-page history of all the prize fights and boxing matches of 1896, from January 1 to December 31, 1896. Two handicap tables; one reproduced from the American Racing Manual, and a new one of even sharper application to racing, never before published.

The Manual will contain the 1896 figures of Baseball, Aquatics, Football, and Athletics in general—racing, trotting, pacing and all departments of sporting. Within The Manual's covers will be 100 pages of pure sporting figures.

The American Manual's handicap tables alone are such as have been usually sold at $50 and $100 each. With them are published explanatory keys and three races which have been run and to which the figures have been applied. These keys show horses, estimate of ability on past races, figures on the race to be run and their position in race to which figures were fitted.

Table No. 2 is entirely new. The track records and time estimate in the book are the result of nine months daily work of five experienced men.
